August 07 “I’m a UU, You’re a UU - Just what is a UU?” – Richard Gordon Zyne

What does it mean to be a Unitarian Universalist? Does it mean anything? Is the term something that helps define who we are and what we believe or is it simply two words that only add to the confusion of our faith or ...lack thereof? And why do we ask so many questions???

August 14 “Square One”– Dan Layman-Kennedy

We like the progress of our lives to always move forward - but we're not always so lucky. When misfortune and setbacks send you back to where you started, how do you move forward? Where do you begin when you find yourself needing to begin again? This meditation on loss and letting go explores how it's possible to find strength and be centered when everything you thought you had suddenly goes away

August 21 “Unitarian Universalists of Fallston - 20 Years Young, 70 years Old; Contributing to Congregation and Community” - Lucille Sonnichsen

August 28 “Religious Background on Recent Conflicts in the Middle East” – Francis Kriston

We know from the news about the many conflicts in the Middle East. In many cases, we understand the political causes and know who the key personalities are, but what are the religious reasons for these conflicts? On August 28, I will discuss the religious reasons for various conflicts providing additional understanding of the enormous volatility in this region.
